WRIT PETITION No.20169 OF 2005

O R D E R

(Per Sri Justice M.Venkateswara Reddy)

This taken up writ petition flows from a telegram issued by the petitioner alleging that her son Sk Habeeb Mohiuddin was detained by the Police of Central Crime Station, Hyderabad, since 29.08.2005 and she is apprehending danger to his life.

The learned Advocate General took notice in the matter and filed the counter-affidavit of 1st respondent-Inspector of Police, Automobile Wing, Central Crime Station, Detective Department, Hyderabad. It discloses that during the course of investigation into various crimes, it is revealed that in one of the crimes, the alleged detenu has purchased the stolen property that therefore he was called to the Police Station on various dates during August and September, 2005 and questioned about the purchase of stolen property that the alleged detenu stated that he had purchased the stolen property without knowing the fact that the same was stolen property and that the Police have chosen to cite him him as a witness in the concerned crimes. He was not arrested.

In view of the specific averment in the counter-affidavit that the stolen property has been purchased by the alleged detenu without knowing it to be a stolen property that he was cited as a witness and called to the Police Station in connection with the crimes, we do not see any illegal detention made of the alleged detenu, and therefore, do not think it necessary to proceed further in the matter. Accordingly, the writ petition is closed.
